EXtreme reading

13th July 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

The challenge has been set!
Are you an Extreme Reader?

Books do not need electricity! We can read them anywhere and everywhere! We are inviting you ALL (including parents, family members and staff) to take part in Ryecroft Middle School's first Extreme Reading Challenge over the Summer Holidays.

Think about different, exciting, fun and SAFE places you can enjoy a book, and take a photo. We will run a competition for the most extreme places reading has taken place. The winner from each year group will be chosen on Friday 15th September 2017, which will allow time for lots of adventures over the holiday.

There can be multiple entries - there is no limit. Simply print off a photo and we will add it to our new Extreme Reading wall in the library. If you have any difficulties printing photos please email: office@ryecroft.staffs.sch.uk (please add your child's name and Extreme Reading to the subject line) and we will print them off for you.

Obviously, we encourage you to keep safe (I would not recommend reading in the jaws of a crocodile) but we are really looking forward to seeing who in school has such a passion for reading that they have to do it anywhere and everywhere!

Have fun Extreme Reading - we cannot wait to see your photos!

Yours sincerely,

Miss K. Sargeant
